KOHA Goes Live!

On October 29, the library, along with the rest of the Chautauqua Cattaraugus Library System moved to a new online cataloging and circulation system called Koha. As a result of this change, the library's catalog looks a little different, but it continues to have the same capabilities as the former catalog.

50th Year As Village Employee

Sue Benson, recently became a 50-year employee of the Village of Falconer. She started in 1968. Sue was Village Clerk until 1995. She has worked part-time at the Falconer Public Library since that time. The Falconer Village Board and the Falconer Public Library Board are proud of her!

"As village clerk, it was my privilege to work with six mayors. It was then a pleasure to work as a library clerk"

Local Author To Visit

On Saturday, December 1st, the Falconer Library will welcome local writer Bob Terreberry. He will be in the library's main room in the morning from 10:00 am until 12:00 noon. Terreberry will present his new novel, the second in the Colin O'Brien Maple Springs Mystery Series. In 2016, Terreberry introduced the series in a book entitled Murder at Maple Springs.

The series is in the cozy mystery genre and chronicles the Colin O'Brien adventures in "a beauty spot on Lake Chautauqua", Maple Springs. This second book is entitled Reunion at Maple Springs.

Terreberry will give a brief talk at 10:30 and will also have both books available for sale and signing. The Falconer Library celebrates local authors and is pleased to have the opportunity to welcome Mr. Terreberry.
